DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

315. Defendants neither admit nor deny the allegations contained in paragraph 315 of the Amended Complaint, as such allegation does not require a response.

DEFENDANTS' AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Defendants assert the following affirmative defenses without assuming any burden of production or proof that they would not otherwise have.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The Amended Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, including, but not limited to, all claims for the alleged violations of § 43 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125 et seq., N.Y. Civil Rights Law §§ 50-51, N.Y. General Business Law § 349, as well as for defamation. In particular, and without limitation, including for the reasons set forth in other affirmative defenses contained herein, upon information and belief: the Amended Complaint fails to state claims for the alleged violation of § 43 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125 et seq. premised on a theory of false endorsement and/or false association due to, among other reasons: (i) Plaintiffs' failure to sufficiently allege a false or misleading representation of fact by Defendants in connection with goods and/or services offered by Defendants; (ii) Plaintiffs' assertion of shifting and/or inconsistent damages allegations and failure to sufficiently assert the nature of their alleged damages in a manner to provide Defendants with adequate notice thereof; and/or (iii) Plaintiffs' failure to adequately allege that the purported actions of Defendants caused consumer confusion as to the origin, sponsorship, or approval of Defendants' goods and/or services. The Amended Complaint also fails to state a claim under N.Y. Civil Rights Law §§ 50-51 because such claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that the conduct in question is alleged to have occurred solely outside the State of New York, in which case Plaintiffs may not assert such claims under N.Y. Civil Rights Law §§ 50-51. Furthermore, the Amended Complaint fails to state a claim under N.Y. General Business Law § 349 because it fails to allege any consumer-oriented injury, and instead alleges only that Plaintiffs suffered individual harm. Also, to the extent that the conduct in question is alleged to have occurred solely outside the State of New York, Plaintiffs may not assert such claims under N.Y. General Business Law § 349. Such allegations as stated also fall outside the protection of N.Y. General Business Law § 349 because trademark infringement allegations and the like cannot form the basis of a claim under N.Y. General Business Law § 349.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Upon information and belief, any harm allegedly suffered by Plaintiffs was legally and proximately caused by persons, individuals, corporations, or entities beyond the control or supervision of Defendants, or for whom Defendants are not responsible or liable, including, among others, the respective licensees that own, control, operate and/or manage the various clubs, along with such websites and/or social media outlets implicated in this action. This includes, but is not limited to, any person and/or entity that owns, controls, operates and/or manages any of the following establishments: Scores Atlantic City; Scores Baltimore; Scores Chicago; Scores New Orleans; Scores West: Harvey; Scores Houston; Scores Columbus; Scores NWI (Indiana); Scores Tampa; Scores Jacksonville; Scores Savannah; Scores North Carolina; Scores New Haven; Scores Detroit; Scores Presents: The Trophy Club, Greenville; and/or Scores Palm Beach, including any and all websites and/or social media outlets under their respective ownership, control and/or management.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs are barred from recovery by reason of waiver and/or estoppel to the extent that Plaintiffs intentionally relinquished all rights to the ownership, use and/or dissemination of the alleged images(s) implicated in this action, including by contracting, releasing and/or licensing rights to the alleged image(s). Plaintiffs' claims are also barred to the extent that Defendants and/or Defendants' third-party licensees relied to their detriment on Plaintiffs' knowledge of, and acquiescence to, the alleged use and/or dissemination of the alleged images.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the doctrine of laches as Defendants are prejudiced by Plaintiffs' unreasonable and inexcusable delay in bringing the claims asserted in the Amended Complaint, some of which are based upon images allegedly published and/or disseminated, upon information and belief, more than three (3) years or more prior to the commencement of this action.

FIFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statute of limitations, including, but not limited to, New York Civil Practice Law and Rules §§ 213, 214(2) and 215(3). In particular, and without limitation, Plaintiffs' claims pursuant to N.Y. General Business Law § 349 are subject to a three (3) statute of limitations as set forth in N.Y. C.P.L.R. 214(2), and as a consequence, any of the alleged images(s) implicated in this action, which were published and/or disseminated more than three (3) years prior to the date this action was initially commenced are time-barred from supporting such claims. Moreover, Plaintiffs' claims under N.Y. Civil Rights Law §§ 50-51, as well as defamation are subject to a one (1) year statute of limitations as set forth in N.Y. C.P.L.R. 215(3), and as a consequence, any of the alleged images(s) implicated in this action, which were published and/or disseminated more than one (1) year prior to the date this action was initially commenced are time-barred from supporting such claims. Additionally, Plaintiffs' claims under § 43 of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125 et seq. are subject to a six (6) year statute of limitations as set forth in N.Y. C.P.L.R. 213, and as a consequence, any of the alleged images(s) implicated in this action, which were published and/or disseminated more than six (6) years prior to the date this action was initially commenced are time-barred from supporting such claims.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

The court should not exercise supplemental jurisdiction over the counts in the Amended Complaint that purport to arise under New York State statutory and/or common law pursuant to 28 U.S.C § 1367.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Upon information and belief, any losses and/or damages sustained by Plaintiffs as alleged in the Amended Complaint were not causally related to any actions or inactions of Defendants, but rather, such losses and/or damages were directly and proximately caused by persons, individuals, corporations, or entities beyond the control or supervision of Defendants, or for whom Defendants are not responsible or liable, including, among others, the respective licensees that own, control, operate and/or manage the various clubs, along with such websites and/or social media outlets implicated in this action. This includes, but is not limited to, any person and/or entity that owns, controls, operates and/or manages any of the following establishments: Scores Atlantic City; Scores Baltimore; Scores Chicago; Scores New Orleans; Scores West: Harvey; Scores Houston; Scores Columbus; Scores NWI (Indiana); Scores Tampa; Scores Jacksonville; Scores Savannah; Scores North Carolina; Scores New Haven; Scores Detroit; Scores Presents: The Trophy Club, Greenville; and/or Scores Palm Beach, including any and all websites and/or social media outlets under their respective ownership, control and/or management.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs failed to mitigate their alleged damages or take other reasonable steps to avoid or reduce the alleged damages, namely by failing to, among other things, pursue and/or undertake any professional modeling, acting, and/or other commercial endeavors or engagements to avoid and/or reduce the alleged damages sought in this action.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims for defamation fail as a matter of law to the extent that the allegedly defamatory conduct set forth in the Amended Complaint reflect(s) or convey(s) the truth.

TENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Defendants did not publish any defamatory statement about Plaintiffs to any third parties.

ELEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs have failed to join necessary and indispensable parties, including, but not limited to, any person and/or entity that owns, controls, operates and/or manages any of the following establishments, as licensees of one or more of the Defendants: Scores Atlantic City; Scores Baltimore; Scores Chicago; Scores New Orleans; Scores West; Scores Houston; Scores Columbus; Scores NWI (Indiana); Scores Tampa; Scores Jacksonville; Scores Savannah; Scores North Carolina; Scores New Haven; Scores Detroit; Scores Presents: The Trophy Club, Greenville; and/or Scores Palm Beach.

TWELFTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs are not entitled to statutory, punitive, or exemplary damages, or to attorneys' fees, under any cause of action alleged in the Amended Complaint, because Defendants did not act with malice, willfulness, bad faith and/or wanton disregard of Plaintiffs' rights.

THIRTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs lack standing to assert some or all of the claims asserted in the Amended Complaint. Among other things, Plaintiffs have failed to plead any consumer injury under N.Y. General Business Law § 349, instead alleging only that they individually, and not as members of the public in general, have suffered damages arising from Plaintiffs' alleged acts.

FOURTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Each and every one of Plaintiffs' claims set forth in the Amended Complaint fail to the extent that Plaintiffs consented to public use and dissemination of the alleged image(s) implicated in this action by virtue of Plaintiffs' execution of a release and/or releases whereby each such Plaintiff gave permission and/or authorization to use the image(s) covered by such release(s).

FIFTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, based upon the lack of any likelihood of confusion, or any misunderstanding as to the affiliation, connection or association of Plaintiffs with Defendants' services, or as to the origin, sponsorship, endorsement or approval by Plaintiffs of Defendants' services, among members of the public, caused in whole or in part by Defendants' alleged conduct.

SIXTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent Plaintiffs themselves voluntarily publicly disseminated the images in question via social media outlets such as Facebook, Twitter and/or Instagram, giving rise to an implied license, and/or an inference that Plaintiffs consented to, further distribution or publication of such images.

SEVENTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Each and every one of Plaintiffs' claims is barred to the extent that Plaintiffs granted a valid license or entered into a license agreement with any of the Defendants or Defendants' licensees, or their agents or representatives, concerning the images implicated in this action.

EIGHTEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent the rights to the images in question, including rights to commercially exploit said images, are owned by any photographers, their assignees, or by other parties, and not by the Plaintiffs.

NINETEENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that they have previously given permission and/or authorization to individuals and/or entities to use their image(s) to promote products and/or services, including those offered by Defendants and/or Defendants' licensees.

TWENTIETH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent any third-party is found liable, in whole or in part, in connection with the claims asserted in the Amended Complaint, Defendants' liability, if any, shall be limited to Defendants' respective equitable share determined in accordance with the relative culpability of each person and/or entity causing or contributing to such total liability.

TWENTY-FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

To the extent the Amended Complaint alleges any harm to Plaintiffs' reputation, marketability, profession, goodwill, or the like, such alleged harm is solely or partially the result of Plaintiffs' or their agents' own culpable conduct or want of care, including their voluntary publication and/or dissemination of images of themselves in scantily clad and/or sexually suggestive poses, including nudity, in various mediums, including, but not limited to, magazines, videos, and/or social media outlets, and not as a result of any alleged conduct by Defendants.

TWENTY-SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that Plaintiffs have ever consented to the use of their images by gentlemen's clubs or other similar establishments.

TWENTY-THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

Each and every one of Plaintiffs' claims is barred to the extent that any alleged use of Plaintiffs' image(s) by Defendants and/or Defendants' licensees only enhances, and does not detract from, the public image that Plaintiffs have intentionally cultivated and exploited for commercial purposes.

TWENTY-FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

As discovery in this case has not concluded, Defendants cannot fully anticipate all defenses which may be applicable to this action. Accordingly, the right to assert additional defenses, to the extent such defenses are applicable, is hereby reserved.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Defendants respectfully request that the Court enter judgment:

- (i) Dismissing all claims in the Amended Complaint;
- (ii) Awarding Defendants all of their reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and expenses defending against this action; and
- (iii) Awarding Defendants such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
